MISSIONAL COMMUNITY LEADER ROLE DESCRIPTION

The primary focus of your MC is making disciples of Jesus who make more disciples. With this focus, the hope is to multiply your MC into two MCs within 18-24 months. You're not doing this alone, but with the shared leadership of a core group of leaders.

LEADING YOURSELF

PERSONAL DISCIPLESHIP:

- Consistent reflection on scripture and application of the Gospel to all areas of life.
- Consistent prayer and listening to the Spirit for his daily leadership for your personal life and for others.
- Regular participation in MC Leader's training and coaching.
- If married, help your wife and children grow in their Gospel understanding and Gospel application.
- Regular practice of Sabbath, solitude, and rest.

LEADING A FEW

REPRODUCING YOURSELF IN YOUR CORE:

- Clarify the "core" of your MC and give them your best energy, preparing them as future multipliers.
- Create and commit to an MC plan with your core with detailed mission included, adjusting seasonally as necessary.
- Help your core understand their unique Ephesians 4 gifting (APEST) and the contribution they can make to the MC.
- Help your core to grow in how they are leading themselves personally (see above).
- Help your core to grow in consistently living out their identity as Family, Missionaries, Servants, and Learners.
- Help each individual maintain several relationships (3-5) with not-yet-believers that they are prayerfully and consistently influencing to Christ.
- Create a culture of prayer with your core, so that the core and others in the MC are being prayed for regularly.
- Organize as many as possible from the MC into DNA's and regularly check on DNA health.
- Meet with the core at least 1x each month to celebrate progress, make needed adjustments, and plan for next month.

LEADING A COMMUNITY

LIVING ON MISSION WITH A FAMILY OF DISCIPLES

- Through the regular rhythms of life, lead the MC to make regular connections with each other's not-yet-believing friends - those your MC has identified, as those to whom they are called to make disciples.
- Help your MC grow in their ability to pursue people's stories and communicate their stories with a Gospel focus.
- Regularly lead the MC to serve the "least of these" in tangible ways. This should involve an investment of time, resources, relationship, and prayer.
- Regularly lead your MC in:
 - Prayer for not-yet-believers.
 - Serving not-yet-believers as a demonstration of the gospel.
 - Speaking and sharing the Gospel verbally.
- Lead the MC through the Storyformed Way with some not-yet-believers at least once a year.
- Prayerfully talk the MC through the multiplication process, helping them understand the vision and "why" behind multiplication. When multiplying, help them both grieve the change and celebrate the growth.
- Lead your MC to regularly partner with other MC's from your City Group to bring greater gospel influence to the area or people group that God has called you to.

I have read and discussed this Role Description. I humbly submit to learning and growth in all of these areas. By God's grace and the power of his Spirit, I covenant with my community to fulfill these commitments to the best of my ability.
